

Norburn Interagency Presents

FIRST PEOPLES 101

Exploring the experiences of Aboriginal, Inuit
& Metis people in Canada

Join us for this professional development opportunity to learn more about First Peoples in Canada including urban aboriginal issues, and the local Burnaby context.

Brandon Curr, District Vice-Principal Aboriginal Education, Burnaby School District will emcee the workshop.

When:* Tuesday, May 5

Where:* McGill Library Community Room / 4595 Albert St.

(library will be closed when you arrive, please knock for entrance)

Time:* 9:15am - 12:30 pm

What:* A screening of two segments of the 8th Fire—a compelling CBC documentary on Aboriginal peoples in Canada, with time for Q&A and discussion afterwards.

FREE and all are welcome, though space is limited.

Registration is required at socialplanning@burnaby.ca or 604-294-7421. Registration Deadline Friday, May 1st.

Coffee, tea and light refreshments will be provided.
Please bring your own mug!